EVERYONE CAN SING - JOIN AN LSU CHOIR!

Fall 2016 Choral Hearings

August 29, School of Music, Room 114
Between 10:30 a.m.-Noon

OR for an alternate time,
E-mail Dr. Trey Davis at treydavis@lsu.edu

**NOTE: Students who completed a School of Music audition in Spring 2016 are not required to complete a choral hearing.

Please visit this link to choose your hearing time: www.tinyurl.com/choralhearings2016

Please arrive 10 minutes prior to your chosen hearing time (School of Music, Room 114). Prepare a solo of your choice (art song, aria, or other classical repertoire). For non-music majors, a hymn verse or folk song is also acceptable. Hearings will also consist of a brief vocalization and sight-singing. An accompanist will be provided. No prior choral experience is necessary.

We are committed to providing each student with an outstanding choral music experience. Please contact us with any questions that you may have.

We look forward to singing with you soon!

A CAPPELLA CHOIR - MWF - 12:30-2:20 p.m.

- The premier touring ensemble of LSU. This internationally recognized choir has been praised throughout the United States and Europe. The LSU A Cappella Choir prides itself on masterful programming and diversity of style.

WOMEN'S CHORALE - MWF - 2:30-3:20 p.m.

- LSU's second oldest choral organization, founded 1935. This choir performs a variety of women's and mixed repertoire both on campus and in the local community, including the LSU French House and the Louisiana ACDA Convention.

MEN'S TIGER GLEE CLUB - MWF - 3:30-4:20 p.m.

- LSU's oldest choir, founded 1916. This ensemble performs a wide variety of literature, ranging from choral masterworks to spirituals, folk, patriotic, and LSU spirit songs at venues both on and off campus, including LSU Ring Ceremonies and athletic events.

LSU GOSPEL CHOIR - MWF - 4:30-5:20 p.m.

- Recently honored as an LSU historical treasure, the LSU Gospel Choir performs a variety of gospel music, from today's Christian contemporary to traditional southern gospel, and is in constant demand statewide for public, private, and corporate events.
